

Lindrum continues to expand

Jan Lindrum

Lindrum Wines are now available in the Middle East. Under the guidance of Jan Lindrum, the Langhorne Creek-based winery recently launched the wines at the National Food Industry Strategy Dinner in Dubai's Mirage Hotel. A number of key industry representatives attended the dinner in Dubai. "Without the support of the National Food Industry Strategy and its project in Dubai, it could have potentially taken years to gain access to this market," said Jan Lindrum.
